South African roads are top class and the Western Cape region is nothing short of Road Trip Heaven. Renting a car is affordable and there is an abundance of scenic routes to choose from and to explore. Expect being stunned by breathtaking landscapes, crisp blue skies, rugged mountain ranges and contrasting seascapes. There are several routes which make for excellent day trips, all within a 70 – 100km radius from Cape Town. Splendid wine estates, sleepy colonial towns and rustic farm scenery provide panoramic pleasure along the way. When you head off the beaten track down less travelled routes, you can still find friendly pedestrians waving at passing cars on isolated country roads and you can see deep green valleys down below from almost forgotten narrow mountain passes...

... and so much more, but heaven has to be experienced... May these pictures be an incentive for your next visit to SA. Why not rent a cabriolet?

Glad you like it, Mich – maybe you'll see it first hand from a car window, one day soon? 😊
